Subject: Registration for the Short Term Course on Academic Leadership Program for Academicians from 7th March 2022 – 9th March 2022

Dear Colleague,

Centre for Professional Development in Higher Education (CPDHE), UGC-HRDC, University of Delhi is conducting a Short Term Course on Academic Leadership Program for Academicians on the theme “Implementation of National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 (राष्ट्रीय शिक्षा नीति 2020 क्रियान्वयन)” in association with Shiksha Sanskriti Utthan Nyas. The course is exclusively for Institutional Heads of academic institutes participating from various universities and colleges of India from 7th March 2022 – 9th March 2022.

Government of India announced the National Education Policy (NEP) on July 29, 2020 with a gap of almost 34 long years after due deliberations and taking wider discussions or suggestions from the stakeholders. The document has a vision to have high quality education system in India by 2040. The course puts focus on challenges to implement this policy aiming to have nationalist, equitable and vibrant knowledgeable society and India regains its status of a global knowledge superpower in 21st century.

The course will involve lectures by heads of the prominent academic institutions having the greater responsibility to implement NEP. Since the implementation of the policy has already been started in phases, it is utmost necessary that each one of us know about the various dimensions of this policy, its aspirations, expectations and challenges. This will help us to develop and implement it successfully in its true sense, spirit and fulfil its vision:

The vision of the Policy is to instil among the learners a deep-rooted pride in being Indian, not only in thought, but also in spirit, intellect, and deeds, as well as to develop knowledge, skills, values, and dispositions that support responsible commitment to human rights, sustainable development and living, and global well-being, thereby reflecting a truly global citizen.
