Invitation & Institutional Representation at University Chef 2022 hosted by SLC

Dear Madam/Sir

As part of the nation-building process, we must cater to the rising enthusiasm of our young generation. A number of culinary shows and competitions on TV such as MasterChef Australia, MasterChef India have massively drawn attention from the young generation. Young minds today want to experiment with food, with culinary expedition, and see how they can excel and grow in their creativity.

University Chef is a first of its kind mega-event hosted by Shyam Lal College, University of Delhi, involving the young generation to encourage and inculcate culinary art. We are now hosting this for the 6th time. The previous five Editions were huge success stories with massive participation from various colleges/institutions, graced by the presence of celebrity Chef Nita Mehta and other jury members from Hotel Samrat, & Hotel Ashok, New Delhi. The editions were covered by media partners such as Hindustan Times, Sahara TV, DD National, Jansatta, Dainik Jagran, Radio Mirchi and Salam Namaste. Like before, for the 6th Edition too, we are inviting 2-member teams from various Delhi University colleges/departments as well as from other universities and institutions across Delhi-NCR to come together and display their creative and experimental engagement in culinary arts.

The Edition 6 of University Chef is scheduled to be held during 28th & 29th April 2022. (27th April is the intra-college segment where we shall select the host teams).

Shyam Lal College invites your college/institution to be a part of this unique culinary initiative and invites ONE 2-Member TEAM from your College/Institution to come and represent your institution at this flagship culinary event with multiple levels/rounds happening on each day and one grand finale as conclusion. Kindly note that Registrations will be closed by February 26, 2022. A copy of the Brochure of the Competition is attached for your kind perusal.

With warm regards
